

Salvia x jamensis 'Flammenn'

A compact Salvia, fire red from May to October.

'Flammenn', has been selected
- for its extremely even, compact and well-branched,
straight and high shape.
- and for its early flower heads, made up of big, bright red flowers from May to the first frosts.
The elongated dark green leaves are semi-evergreen and naturally aromatic.
An easy plant for the garden, in well draining soil, also tolerates being planted in a pot.
