

Abelia x grandiflora GOLD TOUCH® 'BMRGOLD'

Golden gleam for small areas

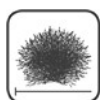

Its foliage, which changes all year long, is very attractive: green, more or less intense yellow, golden, orange, or copper ... The colours vary according to the climate and the soil.

In summer, pale pink to white flowers, with a light calyx. Dense growth and moderate dimensions, this shrub is the ideal decoration for reduced spaces, to which it adds a pretty touch of gold.
